

~~SECRET~~

I. Central Government Organization

- A. Give details of internal organizational structure, function and operational methods and procedures of the followings:
 1. Committees or Commissions
 2. Cabinet Bureaus
 3. Ministries
- B. Identify, give background and any information on the competence of key officials in above organizations.
- C. Describe any changes in above organizations, including changes in organization, function, responsibilities, administrative hierarchy or key personnel. Note the appearance of any conflicts between various organizations or personalities.
- D. Describe the effectiveness of above organizations in the control and supervision over economic administration in the provinces and local governments.

II. Economic Planning

- A. Give the organizational structure of the National Planning Commission, including information on key personalities.
- B. Describe the planning process. What are the procedures for plan formulation and implementation.
- C. What is the relationship between the Planning Commission and other central ministries and local governments?
- D. Describe the role of foreign advisors in the planning process.
- E. Give detailed information on plan fulfillment, new plans or any changes in basic concepts, principles, or objections in planning process.
- F. Describe the organization and procedure for planning at the plant level. Describe the role of Party representatives, union representatives and foreign advisors in the planning process.
- G. Give the organizational structure of the central statistical organization. Include an evaluation of statistical methods and procedures.

~~SECRET~~

III. Sino-Soviet Aid

- A. Describe function of Sino-Soviet economic advisors in North Korea. What is their influence on planning and management. Give country of origin, names, titles, and functions of specific individual advisors in North Korean economic ministries.
- B. Describe Sino-Soviet efforts at bloc economic integration through the Council of Economic Mutual Assistance or any other bodies.

IV. Civil Defense

What is known about civil defense organization, training, shelter construction and defense against atomic, bacteriological and chemical agents?